oard of Public Works Takes Matter Under Advisement After a Lengthy Discussion Between Property Owners and Attorneys.

The question of open specifications and bons fide competition in asphalt and brick paving has been submitted to the board of public works, a body of four representative business men, and it now rests with them whether there shall be a cessation or a continuance of the old monopoly systems of "petitions" by paving companies who secure signatures by rebating to the large property owners. City Counselor Middlebrook has declared that the open specifications on business streets are legal and is backed up in the opinion by Judge F. M. Black, whose reputation as a lawyer will at least equal those of attorneys for pay-ing companies. Mayor Jones has taken a stand against open specifications, but declares for a longer maintenance guaran-declares for a longer maintenance guarantee.

The issue was sharply presented to the board yesterday by City Engineer Wise, who made a hard but unsuccessful fight two years ago for open specifications. Mr. Wise presented specifications for paving Central street from Fifth to Sixth as a business street with brick and asphalt. The brick specifications did not name any certain brand but allowed any brick which came up to the requirements that are, under the present system, demanded of every brick.

Argued Over Test Case.

The asphalt specifications provided for either Bermudes, Alcatras, California, Standard California and lime rock, Trinidad or American Bituminous rock asphalt, and all to be laid in present specifications and surprised to the charter by the promoters who wanter course and five inches of binder course and five inches of binder course and five inches of binder course and five inches of concrete. The presentation of the test case precipitated a lengthy and animated discussion, in which President Graham took an unqualified stand for bona fide competition. The other members, while not committing themselves, inclined to the view that the property owners had the right to get just what they paid for.

W. C. Scarritt, attorney for the Barber company, argued for the continuance of the old system, declaring that the tax bills under the new specifications would not be legal, despite the opinions of City Counselor Middlebrook and Judge Black. Attorney C. E. Small, for the Diamond Brick Company, made a similar plea and argued that different kinds of material were different materials within the meaning of the charter.

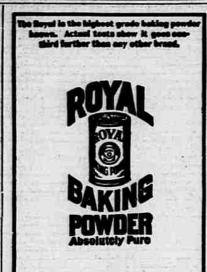

Property Owners Interested. J. C. Ford and James Bannon, large roperty owners, urged the board to give

You are appointed to guard the interests of the people, and the people have confidence in this board. It is for you to say whether that confidence is deserved. The property owners and cause "stagnation."

"I am for competition," said the mayor, "but I believe it can be secured under the present system. What is to prevent the Alcatrax or any other company from circulating petitions at a lower price than any other company? They would get the contracts. But I think that a longer maintenance guarantee should be exacted and I would suggest frien years, instead of would suggest frien years, instead of would surge the to have them. Those cases do not continue to the company? They would get the contracts are not only the company? They would get the contracts are not only the company of the purpose of improviments to stop."

The same old stock argument until the casual spectator would imagine that the paying companies were organized solely for the purpose of improving the city at the lowest cost to the property owners. The simple and unanswerable reply to the argument until the casual spectator would imagine that the paying companies were organized solely for the purpose of improving the city at the lowest cost to the property owners. The board, supposing that the board were made up of men who were either indolent or opposed to public improvements? The paving companies were would be no lack of resolutions for street paving. A witcawake and progressive board could resolutions for street paving would be just as active as they are now and there would be no lack of resolutions but of public improvements? The charter never intended that the pay ing of a street should begin with the prop erty owner, much less with the paving company masquerading in the guise of the property owner. Suppose the open speci-fications were in force to-day. Here are scores of streets needing to be paved and here are several companies anxious to get

Legs of Unfortunates Crushed Off by Car Wheels-The Bicycle Scores One Victim-Two Men Maitreated in Fights.

The traditional reputation of Friday as per of accidents recorded on the police rgeon's book between daybreak yesterday and 12 o'clock last night. That no fatalities were reported does not detract from the horrors of the long chapter written in the blood-book, as in some instances death would have been infinitely preferable to such suffering and mutilation

The variety of causes assigned for these ccidents was a feature of the day. Some of the unfortunates had their faces kicked off or throats cut by human brutes. Oth ers got in the way of railroad trains and were maimed by the wheels. One man fell from the wall of a two-story house and a boy on his bleycle collided with an express wagon. At times the rush of incoming patients was so great that the ambulances and wagons were both called into requisition. Patients waited after surgical attention had been received until means of transportation could be furnished; others were brought in and obliged to await their turn on the surgeon's table. Cots bearing mangled forms were carried in and out at the some moment and it was as if the station were a field hospital, and a battle had just been fought or was at the time in progress. Police Surgeon Longan and Assistant Surgeon Pierce were, one or the other, on duty pretty much all the time and had the assistance twice at the city hospital, in cases where amputation was necessary, of House Surgeon T. B. Thrush.

Maimed by a Train.

One of the most shocking accidents was that which befell William Wilhite. Wilhite is 35 years old and homeless, so far as when he started to walk along the railroad track between Grand avenue and McGee street. A Missouri Pacific freight train came along and knocked him down, rolled him along the track and fearfully crushed and bruised him, so that when he was brought to the station he looked like a dead man. His worst injury was where the wheels mashed off his left foot clear back to the heel, with a portion of the ankle. After his injuries were dressed he was sent to the city hospital, where his foot was amputated last night above the ankle. He will probably recover, the surgeons asy. when he started to walk along the railroa Frank Nettlestaff, 13 years old, who live with his mother and grandmother at 1952 McGee street, thought it would be a fine thing to ride out to Sheffield yesterday morning and take a swim in Gooseneck morning and take a swim in Gooseneck creek. He tried to board a moving train on the Belt line at Sixteenth and Indiana aveune, but made a misstep and was pitch-ed under the cars. The wheels passed over his right leg, crushing it completely off at a point midway between the foot and knee It was necessary to amputate the limb a little higher up and just below the knee. Dr. Longan sent the boy to the hospital, where the operation was performed by Dr.

where the operation was performed by Dr. Thrush.

C. C. Briggs, a carpenter, of 2002 Cieveland avenue, in the employ of John T. Nell, the contractor, was painfully, but not fatally, injured by falling from the top of the wall of a two story building at 219 Forest avenue. He escaped with a lacerated scalp wound and a contusion on the back of his head.

Percy Postiethwaite, 15 years old, of 1112 Charlotte street, met with an accident while on his wheel, owing to the fact that it was provided with no brake. He was riding down hill on Lincoln avenue, near Pacific street, when he encountered a colored man going up in an express wagon. As the wheel couldn't be stopped nor the wagon gotten out of the way, a collision was the inevitable result. Young Postiethwaite escaped with a severe bruise under the left eye and a bad looking cut on the left side of his neck.

The Work of Thugs.

One of the most atroclous instances of brutality was developed in the case of James Cassidy, a white laborer who was brought to the station in the ambulance at 3:30 a. m. yesterday from Ninth and Wyandotte streets. It is supposed that this man was attacked by unknown parties, Wyandotte streets. It is supposed that this man was attacked by unknown parties, who simply kicked the whole front of his face off. When Assistant Police Surgeon Pierce examined the man's wounds at headquarters he found two long cuts under the right and left eye and another in the left ear. His nose was entirely torn off. When Cassidy was found in this wretched condition he was unable to tell his story and his hurts are regarded as very serious. He is 42 years old and, his residence not being known except that it is in Kansas City, he is being cared for at the city hospital.

J. W. Brady, a stove molder from Detrcit, Mich., another early morning patient of Dr. Pierce, was about as badly used up as Cassidy, but in this insfance a knife had been used with the evident and very nearly successful intention of cutting Brady's jugular vein. Brady came to the Central station about daylight in bad shape and said he had been cut by an unknown man in an argument in a saloon. He did not even know the location of the saloon. He had three knife wounds on his neck, which were alarmingly close to the jugular; one on the chin and another that had very nearly severed the point of his nose from his face. Brady is 37 years old, but he will take less kindly to even "simple arguments" hereafter.

IMPORTANT WITNESSES GONE. W. L. KESSINGER CONFIRMED. State's Case Materially Weakened in the Hudspeth Murder

Trial.

The case of J. Lamartine Hudspeth, charged with the murder of J. W. Kessner, a telegraph operator at Buckner, last spring, comes up for trial in the criminal ourt Monday. It is extremely probable court Monday. It is extremely prooable that the prosecution will have a very hard row to hoe, as several of the most important witnesses for the prosecution are said to have followed a time worn precedent and left the state. There is absolutely no way to get them back, and depositions cannot be taken under these circumstances when the witnesses are for the prosecution.

when the witnesses are for the prosecution.

Hudspeth is the man over whom such a legal fight was made last year. One grand jury failed to indict him, but a true bill was found against him by a second. He was refused admittance to bond by Judge Wofford and was sent to jall. After spending several months there, he, apparently, became sick, and his attorneys took the case to the circuit court. After a lengthy argument, he was admitted to ball in the sum of $20,000, which was promptly furnished. Several times his case has been called for trial and each time it had to be put over, as Hudspeth's attorney came forward with a doctor's certificate that he was too ill to be in court:

WAS HIS OWN ATTORNEY.

Clyde Ferguson Made an Able Defense, but Is Held to the Federal Grand Jury.

Clyde Ferguson, the young man who is charged with sending a letter to Carl Ade, an Eleventh street merchant, trying to extort $25 from him, was arraigned before tort $25 from him, was arraigned before Commissioner Nuckols yesterday afternoon and held to the federal grand jury. He was released on $100 bond, with S. H. Ferguson and R. W. Hickman as sureties. He acted as his own attorney, and did it well. A number of people who had known him for a long time swore to his previous good character. His act in receiving the letter addressed to T. H. Crosby was the strong circumstance against him, and Commissioner Nuckols told him he could not do else than hold him.

Pwo Circus Attaches Sentenced in the Federal Court, One to Jail, the Other to the Pen.

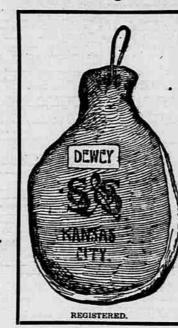

In the federal court yesterday Frank Gross admitted that he had passed coun-terfeit money at Salisbury when he was a roustabout with Lemen Bros.' circus. He white, another circus man, and he was told how to work it off on the public. He was given six months in jail, and Al White, who declined to plead guilty, and stood trial, was given two years in the penitentiary.

Empty Stomach - Police Board Will Meet on Wednesdays Hereafter.

Officer W. E. Hewett had a toothache and in empty stomach one day about two weeks ago. He had also been up nearly all night at the bedside of a member of his family. He forgot all about the strict order of the board of police commissioners that no officer should drink any liquor while on duty. Or rather he thought he could violate the order without being caught. The result was that he was both caught and discharged. He was suspended two weeks ago, and yesterday when he was stood on the carpet before the police comof being properly repentant he put on a bold front and got pert. His head fell in the basket with a promptitude that will probably have a deterrent effect on bibulous officers in the future.
"I don't care if you stayed up forty nights," said Mr. Ward, "so far as I am concerned, there shall be no palliating circumstances."

"What can we do?" asked Mr. Gregory,
"What an officer deliberately disobeys a plain order of this board? I dislike to discharge you but you have disobeyed an order and we cannot stultify ourselves by letting you off."

of the other commissioners and Mr. Hewett stalked out of the room. A. W. Holden was appointed in his place.

The board changed its meeting day from Friday to Wednesday, and there will be no meeting until June 1. An order was made that Mrs. Patti Moore, police matron, should not be commissioned until she dismisses her suit against the city for reinstatement.

The following saloon licenses were granted: W. M. Mackey, Twenty-f-ourth and Grand; Rapp & Kuehman. 1403 Grand; Barney Yuelkenbeth, 1835 Union avenue; W. M. Ogg. 1 Bridge street, and H. T. Brown, 110 East Missouri avenue.

A complaint was made against the proprietors of saloons at Fifth and Lydia that they were cited to appear and show cause why their licenses should not be revoked. The same action was taken in the case of the proprietors of the saloon at Twelfth and Liberty, where a man was held up and robbed of $50 some time ago.

Detective George W. Bryant was granted thirty days' leave without pay, to go to Hot Springs. Detectives O'Hare and Dwyer were authorized to receive $25 reward for the capture of Charles Huebler, at Omaha.

Commissioners Ward and Gregory have not yet received any opinion of the question as to whether the board can appoint patrolmen in excess of the apportionment.

He Will Take Charge of the Office o Surveyor of Customs on June 1.

W. L. Kessinger received notice yester-day at noon that he had been confirmed as surveyor of customs at Kansas City. He called on Surveyor Welsh during the afternoon and Mr. Welsh assured him the office would be at his disposal on June 1. Mr. Kessinger hopes to be able to take charge at that time. He will file his bond at once, He stated yesterday he had not decided on his chief cherk yet but would make the announcement soon. Three names have been talked of for the place and rumor has it one of that number will win. The names are Colonel R. H. Hunt, Captain T. H.
